Dear Donnald:

Since filing my financial disclosure statement on May 14, I have discovered I neglected to report one liability.

Please use this letter as my amendment to the Financial Disclosure Statement for Calendar Year 1990, dated May 14, 1991.

The following item should have been listed under Part V - Liabilities:

Creditor: Norwest Bank, Wayzata, MN
Type of Liability: Checking account credit reserve
Category of Amount of Value: $10,001 - $15,000

I am sorry for the oversight, but hope this letter explains the additional liability.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Jim Ramstad

Dear Mr. Anderson:

This is to amend my Financial Disclosure Statement for calendar year 1990. I have just learned that two items listed in Parts II and III as the Janet Anderson Trust and the James Anderson Trust are incorrect. These trusts have been dissolved and the assets transferred to various beneficiaries, of whom my wife is one.

These assets should have been reported as follows:

	Block A	Block B	Block C
S	U.S. Treasury Note	D	interest	III
S	First Financial Associates, Inc.	D	dividend	III

If you have any questions regarding this amendment or require further information, please let me know.

Sincerely,

John J. Rhodes, III

The Honorable Donnald K. Anderson
Clerk of the House
1036 Longworth House Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Mr. Anderson:

This letter will serve to clarify a question raised in Part IV of my 1990 Financial Disclosure Statement.

In 1989, my wife and I purchased a property at 832 Camino Chaco, in Santa Fe, New Mexico, which we use as our personal district residence. Since it was a personal property which did not generate any income, I did not list it as an asset or transaction on my 1989 Financial Disclosure Statement. However, we did rent out this property in 1990, and it was, therefore, listed on my most recent FD Statement. It was my understanding that a personal residence which does not generate any income need not be reported.

Please let me know if any further documentation is needed.

Sincerely,

Bill Richardson

Mr. Donnald K. Anderson
Clerk, U.S. House of Representatives
Office of Records and Registration
1036 Longworth House Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Mr. Anderson:

This letter serves as a formal amendment to my 1990 Financial Disclosure Report. Please note the changes on the attached forms.

On page A-2, Parts II and III, please note the removal of "S" by Courtland Money Fund. Also, I have added the following two assets: 306 Beaver Plaza, State College, Pennsylvania; and 603 Beaver Terrace, State College, Pennsylvania. I overlooked listing these two investment properties as an asset due to the fact that there was a net loss of income in 1990. I have marked both the net and gross income.

On page A-3, Part IV, please note the removal of "S" by GARDA PARTNERSHIP.

On page A-3, Part V, please note the removal of "S" by Landmark Savings, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and U.S. Bank, Johnstown, Pennsylvania.

I appreciate your assistance in promptly amending my record.

Sincerely,

Rick

Dear Sir:

Thank you for your letter of May 20, 1991, and the enclosure which mention the need for additional information.

Part II. ASSETS

The address of the real property in Pima County, Arizona, is 9410 N. Sidewinder Lane, Tucson, Arizona 85743. The personal property consists of two mobile homes located on said real property.

Part IV. TRANSACTIONS

In 1989 and previous years, the Jefferson Savings and Loan Association stock had been listed under "Holdings" as accounts. Included under accounts were the certificate of deposit and the stock. The certificate of deposit earned interest but no dividends have been earned from the stock.

Philips Lamp is included under Davenport & Company which is a brokerage company. During 1990, there were Tax-Free Instruments Trust (on which interest was earned as shown under Davenport), and Philips Lamp (on which there were no earnings). In 1989 and previous years, I showed these two items separate for Davenport.

I apologize for any inconvenience this may have caused your office.

Sincerely,

D. French Slaughter, Jr.
Member of Congress

Dear Sir:

I am enclosing my Financial Disclosure Statement for 1990.

Prior to completing this statement, I requested an opinion of the Committee on Official Standards as to the disclosure of two irrevocable trusts created on January 31, 1990, by my sister, Jane S. McColl, and my brother-in-law, Hugh L. McColl, Jr., for the benefit of their children, Hugh L. McColl, III, John S. McColl, and Jane B. McColl. The trusts are grantor retained-income trusts, and I serve as trustee, without compensation, of each trust. The trust created by Hugh L. McColl, Jr. owns 11,750 shares of NCNB Corporation common stock; the trust created by Jane S. McColl owns 12,250 shares of NCNB Corporation common stock.

I was advised by Edward Hosken of the Committee on Official Standards that neither the trusteeship nor my ownership in trust of this stock was required to be disclosed on the Financial Disclosure Statement. However, I think it is appropriate to record the fact that I am trustee of these two trusts, and I am writing this letter to serve that purpose.

I am sending a copy of this letter to the Committee on Official Standards.

Sincerely,

John M. Spratt, Jr.

Re: Financial Disclosure Statement for 1991

Dear Mr Chairman:

I received your letter noting apparent deficiencies in my Financial Disclosure Statement for 1990, and I am responding to the items you cited. The checklist enclosed with your letter notes the following "apparent deficiencies:"

(1) Under Part II, the "value of VORTAC lease." The Federal Aviation Administration leases approximately 80 acres in the center of my farm in Fort Mill, South Carolina. The lease binds me as lessor for 5 years, but allows the FAA the option of electing each year whether to renew by notifying me thirty days before the anniversary date, which is October 1. When I was elected to Congress, I notified the FAA of my election and informed the FAA that I could no longer accept rent under our existing lease. Your committee informed me that I could not contract with the FAA, but that the FAA could acquire a leasehold interest in my property by judicial condemnation. The FAA received the same advice from the Justice Department. Consequently, the FAA brought condemnation proceedings to acquire a five-year lease in 1985, and during 1990, the FAA brought condemnation proceedings again to acquire another five-year lease. Because of the time involved in obtaining an appraisal and completing the condemnation proceeding, the condemnation case was not concluded in 1990, and no rent was paid to me by the FAA in 1990. Thus, under income from the FAA lease, there is no entry for income since there was no rental income in 1990. In 1991, rental income will be doubled due to the fact that I received 1990 rent in April 1991 after entry of the order for judgment and will receive rent for the term commencing October 1, 1991, in November or December 1991. Except for annual rent, the lease has no value. The underlying land is already reported in the value of my farm, and the improvements on the leasehold belong to the FAA. I do not see how the rent can be capitalized to establish a value for the lease, because the lease is short-term and the FAA as lessee is only bound to pay rent only if it elects to renew. Under the terms of the lease, I retain the right to use the leasehold property for agricultural and other purposes not inconsistent with the operation of the VORTAC facility. Therefore, the leased land is included as part of the 800-acre farm that I list and value separately, but the lease is shown separately because it is a source of income

(2) Under Part II, "farm house rental." This frame house is also located on my farm at the intersection of Brickyard Road and an unpaved road known as River Bottoms Road. There are no fixed boundaries to the parcel on which the house sits, and the parcel is included within the 800-acre farm which is listed and valued separately. I have added to the Disclosure Statement a separate value for the house; however, an appraiser would disregard the value of the house in appraising the farm; because if the land were sold at its highest and best use, the house would be of no value.

(3) Under Part III, Lot 87 River Pointe Subdivision, Mecklenburg County, North Carolina. This is a vacant lot in a residential subdivision, purchased as an investment and being held for resale. Since the lot yields no income, there is no "Type of Income" or "Amount of Income" applicable to the investment. Thus these blocks were left blank on my disclosure statement. Nevertheless, I have checked Category I under "Amount of Income" to indicate "none."

(4) Under Part III, Checking Accounts with Sergeant-at-Arms and Crestar Bank in Washington, D. C. Neither account bears interest, so there is no "Type of Income" or "Amount of Income" to list for either. Nevertheless, I have checked Category I under "Amount of Income" to indicate "none."

(5) Under Part III, Promissory Note from Spratt for Congress. Under "Type of Income," there is no entry because the note is not interest-bearing; it is a note for repayment of principal only. Under "Amount of Income," there is no entry for the same reason. Nevertheless, I have checked off Category I under "Amount of Income" to indicate "none."

(6) Under Part III, Promissory Notes from J David Weeks; Thomas B. Spratt, III, and Alexa H Spratt; and Joseph H. Rainey. Under "Type of Income," interest is checked because the notes or debts are interest-bearing. However, no interest was paid on any of these obligations during 1990; so there is no entry for "Amount of Income." Category I has been checked for all entries to indicate "none."

(7) Under Part III. Law Library. Under "Type of Income," there is no entry because my law library yields no income of any kind. For the same reason, there is no entry under "Amount of Income," but I have checked Category I to indicate "none."

(8) Under Part III. Common Stock in Waterman Marine Corp. Under "Type of Income," there is an entry because this single share of stock may pay a dividend. However, there is no entry under "Amount of Income," because it has not paid a dividend. I have checked Category I to indicate "none "

I trust that the information furnished by this letter and the additional entries on my financial disclosure statement resolve each of the deficiencies you noted. If further information is required, please let me know.

Respectfully

John M Spratt Jr
Member of Congress

HC

RECD MAY 22 11:12 56

Dear Mr Chairman:

In regard to your request for an explanation of transactions in your letter of May 21, 1991; the Aardolie Oil Company production interest is that interest referred to in 1989 as "Oil Exploration Partnership, Dallas, Texas". The Aardolie Oil Company is a more precise way of defining that interest. Would you, therefore, add the words "Dallas, Texas" to the Aardolie Oil reference?

The Walnut Creek, California condominium shown in 1989 Report was shown in 1989 in error. I still own it, but it is a personal residence and has never generated any rental income, and, as I understand the rules, does not need to be listed.

If this explanation is not satisfactory or if you'd like further details, please let me know.

Sincerely,

Pete Stark

Washington, DC 20515

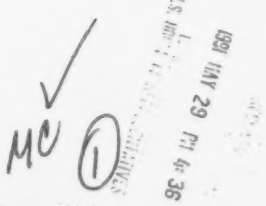
May 29, 1991



Clerk, U.S. House of Representatives
Office of Records and Registration
1036 Longworth House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

As requested, the following is a clarification of my 1990 Financial Disclosure Statement, referred to on the Form A Checklist:

Part II. Assets

The 4-C Partners (Torrington Venture) is the Kings Inn motel and restaurant in Torrington, Wyoming. It was listed in the 1989 Disclosure Statement as "Kings Inn Motel Partnership." The 4-C Partners (Fairview Venture) is a hollow partnership and will be dissolved this year. There have been no assets since 1986 and was only reported this year due to your new format.

Part IV. Transactions

Colorado Bank shares were listed in the first Financial Disclosure Statement of 1989, upon my election, as Colorado National Bank. The accurate title is Colorado National Bank Shares. It is a common stock now worth $9,000 and pays around $80 a year in dividends. It was acquired in January of 1989 and there have been no transactions since. The omission of this holding from the year-end 1989 Statement was simply an oversight.

I hope this clears up any questions you may have.

Cordially,

Craig Thomas
Member of Congress

PART VI—TANGIBLE GIFTS
(GIFTS OTHER THAN TRANSPORTATION, LODGING, FOOD, ENTERTAINMENT)

Report the source, a brief description, and value of all gifts other than transportation, lodging, food, or entertainment (disclosed in next section), aggregating $100 or more in value received by you, your spouse, and your dependent child from any source during the calendar year.

Exclusions: Gifts from relatives, gifts of personal hospitality of an individual, and local meals need not be reported. Gifts with a value of $75 or less need not be aggregated towards the $100 disclosure threshold. Gifts to a spouse or dependent child totally independent of his or her relationship to you need not be disclosed.

Note: House Rule XLIII, clause 4, limits the value of gifts a Member, officer, or employee of the House may accept from any one source in a calendar year to $200 in most instances. For further information, see Instructions, page 18.

Example:	Mrs. Joseph H. Smith, Anytown, USA	Silver Platter	$135

List the identity of the source and a brief description (including a travel itinerary, dates, and nature of expenses provided) of travel related expenses aggregating $250 or more received by you, your spouse, or a dependent child during the year. Disclosure is required regardless of whether the expenses were reimbursed or paid directly by the sponsor. If the travel was a gift, rather than payment of expenses for an activity such as a fact-finding event or speaking engagement, indicate by marking the appropriate box.

Exclusions: Travel-related expenses provided by federal, state, and local governments, or by a foreign government,* and reimbursements paid from campaign funds; travel provided to a spouse or dependent child totally independent of his or her relationship to you. For further information see instructions, pages 20–22.

The Honorable Donnald K. Anderson
Clerk of the House of Representatives
1036 Longworth House Office Building
Washington, D. C. 20515

Dear Sir:

In response to an inquiry from the Committee on Standards regarding my 1990 Financial Disclosure Statement, I submit this letter as an amendment to my 1990 Financial Disclosure Statement. I am submitting this letter instead of preparing an amended 1990 financial disclosure statement.

Of the items identified as apparently needing additional information, the following were identified as assets needing possible clarification:

Citizens Savings and Loan, IRA
North Carolina Teachers Retirement
North Carolina Legislative Retirement

All three of the above asset items should have been indicated as having a category of value of "none," which is Category A under Block B of the form. The Citizens Savings and Loan - IRA item was no longer held at the end of 1990 and consequently had no value at that time. The North Carolina Teachers Retirement that my wife received was completely from state funds. Any contribution made by her had previously been refunded. Consequently, she has no vested value in the retirement at the end of 1990. The North Carolina Legislative Retirement was a pension I received for which I have made no personal contributions.

Not printed at government expense.

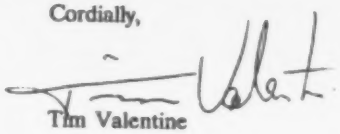
Other items that were identified as possibly needing clarification were items of Unearned Income. These items include the following:

Granville United Bank stock
Precious Metals Investment
Citizens Savings and Loan Stock
Federal Land Bank Stock
Merrill Lynch Flagship N.C. Fund

All of the above Unearned Income items, except the Merrill Lynch Flagship N.C. Fund, were investments being held that yielded no income in 1990. The Merrill Lynch Flagship N.C. Fund that my wife holds should have been classified as a dividend type of income with a Category amount of II under Block C of the form. All other Unearned Income items should have been indicated as Category I under Block C of the form. All other Unearned Income items should have been indicated as Category I under Block C of the form to indicate income as being "none."

I trust that this letter of explanation is satisfactory for the inquiries of the Committee on Standards. If you determine that an amended 1990 financial disclosure would be helpful, please let me know. Thank you for your attention.

Cordially,



Tim Valentine

Dear Donnald:

This letter is to amend my 1990 Financial Disclosure Statement.

On page A-2 under Parts II and III - Assets and "Unearned" Income, I inadvertantly failed to include interest income on my account at Marion County Mutual Loan and Building Association and my spouse's account at Marion County Mutual Loan and Building Association. Both of these accounts should be checked under under Block C Income as interest income for the amount between $201-$1,000.

Sincerely,

Harold L. Volkmer

MC (1)

Dear Colleagues:

I am writing in response to your May 17th request for additional information on my Financial Disclosure Statement.

Under Parts II and III, Assets and Unearned Income, the two store buildings listed are located on Court House Square in Oxford, Mississippi.

The house in Charleston, Mississippi, listed on previous Disclosure Statements, is my personal residence and, from a reading of page 13 of the April 1991 Instructions, need no longer be listed.

The farmland in Charleston, Mississippi, is approximately 240 acres. Charleston is in Tallahatchie County.

Also under Parts II and III, the Series HH Bonds and U.S. Savings Bonds were overlooked by my staff. They should still be listed as assets with a value of E for the Series HH bonds and a value of B for the Savings Bonds.

Trusting this information meets the requirements and with best wishes.

Sincerely,

Jamie L. Whitten, M.C.

The Honorable Tony P. Hall
U.S. States House of Representatives
2448 Rayburn House Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Colleague:

This responds to your letter of January 25, 1990, requesting an advisory opinion from the Committee with respect to a trip your wife is planning to take with several other congressional wives to Uganda from February 10-18, 1990, at the request of Mrs. Janet Museveni, the wife of Ugandan President Yoweri Museveni. The invitation, a copy of which you enclosed with your letter, indicates that the purpose of this visit is for the group to see firsthand the orphan problems of that country and then to assist the Fellowship Foundation and World Vision in trying to ease conditions for these children by their testimony in this country. The invitation further indicates that all expenses for this trip would be jointly paid by the Fellowship Foundation and World Vision, both nonprofit organizations.

It is the responsibility of a traveling Member, employee, or spouse to determine whether the sponsor of a trip of this kind is a foreign government or agent thereof, or acting on behalf of a foreign government. The invitation indicates that the sponsors of this trip, Fellowship Foundation and World Vision, are nonprofit organizations. Therefore, for purposes of this advisory opinion letter, your wife's travel expenses are deemed not to be subject to the Foreign Gifts and Decorations Act (5 U.S.C. §7342).

The applicable House rule is Rule XLIII, clause 4, which, effective January 1, 1990, provides that a Member, officer, or employee of the House shall not accept in any calendar year gifts aggregating more than "minimal value," directly or indirectly, from any source other than a relative. In Advisory Opinion No. 9, the Select Committee on Ethics of the 95th Congress determined that gifts to a spouse or dependent of a Member are considered indirect gifts to the Member, unless such gift is prompted by some consideration unrelated to the recipient's relationship to the Member.

This Committee has recognized an exception to the gift rule for individuals who "substantially participate" in an event. The Select Committee on Ethics of the 95th Congress, in Advisory Opinion No. 2, stated that:

> . . . necessary expenses should not be considered to be a "gift" to a participating individual who renders personal services sufficient to constitute "equal consideration" for the expenses provided by the sponsoring organization.

The opinion goes on to point out that:

> . . . the services rendered must be more than perfunctory in nature to constitute equal consideration for the expenses involved. For example, addressing an audience at an event or engaging in discussion seminars would be considered substantial participation sufficient to constitute "equal consideration," while simply visiting a specific site or location as part of a "fact-finding tour" would probably not be viewed as "equal consideration" for expenses paid by a sponsoring organization.

Thus, if you determine that this trip is being offered to your wife totally independent of her relationship with you, or if your wife is performing services for the sponsors of the trip which constitute equal consideration for the travel provided, then acceptance of necessary expenses would not be deemed a gift for the purposes of House Rule XLIII, clause 4.

Section 805(a)(1) of the Ethics Reform Act of 1989 sets a ceiling on the expenses which will normally be deemed necessary for privately paid travel. In the case of foreign travel, a maximum of seven consecutive days (excluding travel days) may be accepted without prior written approval from the Committee. Your wife's proposed travel appears consistent with this limit.

Any such expenses incurred by your wife for travel which is not totally independent of her relationship with you, and which aggregate $250 or more in value from a single source, must be disclosed as "reimbursements" on the Financial Disclosure

Statement you file pursuant to the Ethics in Government Act of 1978. The Ethics Reform Act requires reporting not only the identity of the source of the travel but also a brief description, including a travel itinerary, dates, and nature of expenses provided.

If you have any further questions concerning this matter, please contact the Committee staff at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

Julian C. Dixon
Chairman

Clerk of the House
U. S. House Of Representatives

Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Donnald:

The financial disclosure statement I submitted to you covering calender year 1990 included typographical errors on a number of the dates involving Part I - earned income and Part VII - Reimbursements.

All of the identifying dates should have been listed as occurring in 1990 and a number of them were mistakenly identified as occurring in 1991.

Enclosed is a new financial disclosure form with the corrected typographical errors.

With best wishes and personal regards, I am

Very truly yours,

C. W. Bill Young

Dear Mr. Anderson:

Please accept this amendment to my 1990 financial disclosure statement, which was filed on May 15 of this year. Attached are the appropriate pages of the disclosure form with additional information supplied as requested as well as an amended copy of my supplemental statement of assets and liabilities.

Under Parts II and III (Assets and "Unearned" Income), please add to my list of assets and/or income source the following:

1) Johnson & Johnson pension, valued between $50,001 and $100,000, with income of between $5,001 and $15,000. The type of income is an increase in present value.

2) State of New Jersey pension, valued between $15,001 and $50,000, with income between $201 and $1,000. The type of income is an increase in present value less employee contribution.

Also, please note the following changes in the same section:

Under state of New Jersey deferred compensation plan, the type of income should be listed as net increase from fixed income and equity funds, with amount of income between $1,001 and $2,500. Under the Johnson & Johnson Savings Plan, the type of income should be listed as net increase in guaranteed interest fund, with income between $1,001 and $2,500.

Please note under Part IX --(Agreements), new language showing the pension plan in addition to the Johnson and Johnson Savings plan.

THIS STATEMENT PRINTED ON PAPER MADE OF RECYCLED FIBERS

And finally, please note that there should be no income listed for the loan to Zimmer for Congress Committee.

I also have enclosed an amended statement of my assets and liabilities to reflect the above changes and other minor adjustments.
